

Host Your Own Backpack Drive Collection!

It's almost time for students to return to school, and you can ensure local kids have all they need to start their year off the right way by hosting a 2024 Backpack Drive! By hosting your own collection of new backpacks and school supplies, you'll ensure hundreds of local students return to school with bright smiles and all they need to excel in the classroom!

If you choose to participate:

Acenda Integrated Health will provide you with all the marketing materials, signage, and collection boxes you'll need at the collection location of your choosing.

One of our staff will organize a time for you to pick up any items before the collection period ends (Monday, August 19th, 2024).

Gift card donations to supply stores and other vendors are always welcomed.

Businesses and organizations who participate in the 2024 Backpack Drive will be featured on our social media pages to shout out the amazing work they're doing to help local children and our other initiatives.

Help spread the word about our collection efforts by encouraging people you know to donate via Amazon, Target, and Walmart gift registries. accessible through our 2024 Backpack Drive donation page.

We want to thank all our supporters for their dedication to the Acenda Integrated Health Mission as we continue to improve the lives of everyone in our communities.
